

Eighth Grade Summer Reading Character Notes

While you read a book this summer, take notes on the main characters in the book. To do this, fill in the form below. You will need to write down the character's name, and pull at least three quotes from the book that share information about that character. You are quoting the book, which means that you are writing down a sentence word for word from the book that tells about the character or describes an action or thought, or feeling of the character.....really you are pulling any information from the story that helps you decide what kind of person this character is.

Example: from Michael Vey: Prisoner of Cell 25

Michael Vey

"I don't know why I did it – maybe I was still feeling great from finally putting Jack in his place, maybe it was the obnoxious smirk on Applebaum's face, or maybe it was that I was showing off for Taylor. But, most likely it was the culmination of too many years of being bullied. Whatever the reason, I was done with playing the victim." Page35
